

INTERESTING LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

John Rowland, 355 Chestnut st., and Chas. Brown, 858 Orleans st., arrested, charged with attempting to hold up E. O'Neil, 521 Wells st.

Fred Rosner, 2516 W. Monroë st., held up. $6 and $45 watch.

Max Loback, arrested when police surrounded house, 739 N. Ashland av. Wanted as a horse thief.

Two negroes held up B. Bowman, jewelry salesman, 2150 W. 70th st. Got jewelry worth $600 and $37 cash and then shot at him while he was trying to get key in his door. Escaped.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Maxon, Harvey, Ill., brought boy, 3 months old, to E. Chicago av. police station. It had been abandoned at their home three weeks ago. Turned over to St. Vincent's Asylum.

Two men knocked Paul Raggi unconscious while he was dozing in his saloon, 202 S. Western av. Fled, leaving cash register untouched. Had received many threatening letters.

George Koch, 53, known by children as "Uncle George," found dead in hay loft of barn he lived in, rear of 6033 Ada st. Heart disease.

Burglars got $800 loot from two flats at 749 S. Sacramento blvd.

Spark from bonfire set fire to dress of Mollie Povalinsky, 6, 1113 S. Paulina st. May die.

Tom Burke, the convicted auto bandit, will start his sentence of from 1 year to life in Pontiac Reformatory, instead of Joliet, because he is under 21 years old.

Ten musicians, wearing scarlet uniforms, played ragtime over casket of Carrie Halaska, girl suicide. She requested it in a farewell note.

"Patsy," 5, asked policeman to arrest him. Policeman refused. Boy said he'd sooner go to jail than go home and get beaten. Policeman took him to station. Refused to give more than first name. Juvenile Home.

Miss Irene Blanchard, dean of Wilbard Hall, will put question of abandoning tango, turkey trot, grizzly bear and other such dances up to co-eds of Evanston. Will hold meeting Monday.

"Prof." Chas. Crane, "greatest of all" seers, forecaster of future and revealer of past, arrested as fugitive from justice at Lusk, Wyo. Wanted here for alleged swindling of Mrs. H. L. McEldowney, West Salem, Wis., out of $15,500 on March 3.

James Patterson arrested. Alleged to have defrauded 105 banks out of over $100,000 on forged checks. Turned over to Carlinville, Ill.

S. R. Silverton, Pres., and S. Schaeffer, treasurer, of Silverton Publishing Co., 732 Sherman st., arrested. Charged with mail frauds.

Although ice will be higher in many parts of U. S. because of mild winter, reported that ice will remain at $3.50 a ton here.

C. L. Hutchins, arrested here charged with forging checks in hotels and cigar stores from Pasadena, Cal., to N. Y.

Residents of Maywood are real peeved because of reports that they had voted "dry" Tuesday after being "wet" for 32 years. They showed that there had not been a saloon in Maywood since the town was founded.

Chinaman found weak from hunger in G. T. Ry. freight train, where he had been imprisoned for a week.

Olaf Knudson, 54, 117 S. Green st., sailor, found unconscious. Died at hospital. Believed robbed and murdered.

Thomas King, 7, 2915 E. 91st st., seriously hurt by auto of Earl Alyschuler, 3123 E. 91st st.

Frank May, 33, 7410 Ingleside av., hit by auto of Dr. J. J. Andrews, 2808 Prairie av. Fractured skull.

W. C. Curtis, 68, broker, 168 N. Wabash av., received crushed foot when hit by auto of W. D. Boyce, 500 Dearborn av.

Marie Ulrich, 20, employed as maid